THE CONDITIONS FOR MAKING AN AUSTRALIAN RECORD CLAIM ARE PRINTED IN THE GFAA OFFICIAL AUSTRALIAN GAME FISHING JOURNAL.

TIME ALLOWANCES

TIME LIMIT ON CLAIMS

Recognition of the capture of a Victorian Record may not be granted by GFAV until after two months from the date of capture of the fish. Any claim received by GAV more than two months from the date of capture will be considered only if the delay is caused by extenuating circumstances. If an incomplete record claim is submitted, it must be accompanied by an explanation of why portions are incomplete.

GFAV RECORD APPLICATION PROCEDURES

An incomplete claim will only be considered for a record if the following conditions are met:

1. The incomplete claim with explanations of why portions are incomplete must be received by GFAV within the time limits specified above.
2. Missing data must be due to circumstances beyond the control of the angler making the record claim.
3. All missing data must be supplied within a period of time considered to be reasonable in view of the particular circumstances. Final decisions on incomplete claims will be made by the Executive of GFAV

CLAIMING AN IGFA WORLD RECORD

You must be an IGFA member to claim an IGFA World Record. An IGFA World Record Claim MUST be made on the appropriate IGFA recognised claim form and in accordance with the IGFA guidelines printed in the World Record Book.

If an Australian/Victorian record is being claimed in conjunction with the World Record Claim, the angler must complete the appropriate FAA claim form and submit it with the claim with the appropriate EFT payments as described above.

Only one line sample with double and trace is required to be submitted for all three claims.

CLAIMING PROCEDURES

All record claims must be submitted through the angler's club secretary/recorder who should forward the claim to the recorder of the state in which the capture was made.

To ensure that record claims are delivered safely to the state recorder, it is wise to post them by certified mail and request a return receipt.

When a claim is made for a Victorian Record the secretary of the club from which the claim was sent will receive a letter from the GFAV Recorder to say that the claim has been received. If this letter is not received within 14 days of the claim being sent, please contact the GFAV recorder on the number listed below.
